Heyday: 35 Years of Music in Minneapolis Daniel Corrigan, Danny Sigelman

Daniel Corrigan has been photographing musicians, concerts, and other artists since the early 1980s, just as the Minneapolis music scene was taking off. He was the official First Avenue photographer for many years and still photographs several shows a month, chronicling both emerging local acts and national touring bands. Corrigan's images of the Replacements, Prince, Babes in Toyland, Soul Asylum, the Jayhawks, Doomtree, and countless others offer a unique perspective on the explosion of the Twin Cities scene over the last 35 years as well as on the world of rock and roll as a whole. This book brings together the well known photos from his collection with little-known gems and outtake photos from legendary photo shoots, including concerts, band promo photos, and album covers.
