Menopause Practice: A Clinician's Guide The North American Menopause Society

NAMS is proud to offer the completely updated and referenced 5th edition of the Society's leading professional resource, featuring the latest comprehensive clinical practice information. The textbook is offered in a print book and in an interactive, downloadable, fully bookmarked PDF format.

Written and reviewed in collaboration with dozens of experts in the care and treatment of midlife women, this new edition is an indispensable resource for all practitioners focused on menopause management. The Society is grateful for the work of all these contributors, as well as to Noven Women's Health and Novo Nordisk Inc. for the unrestricted educational grants that helped in part to defray development costs.

As a CME activity, the textbook and accompanying examination provide a maximum of 26.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™, available through October 15, 2017. Learners other than physicians will earn a certificate of participation noting that the activity includes 11.5 hours of pharmacotherapeutics education.
