One Bad bird In The beginning Can Make All The Difference In The End! This story is not only an adventure which carries Luke Mitchner and his companions towards a greater goal in Luke's life, which will be shared by all his friends, but it is also an analogy of a process called Maturity! I must admit, this is a parable that fills in the time between episodes of greater magnitude. Some readers might think, why would this Old Blind Man waste his time penning as far-fetched a story as this one? It is simple my friends, for each of us have this wild and nasty parrot existing inside of us. Unless someone, or something, comes along to assist us, swearing and profanity will catch on with those around us like a bad disease. And we will do nothing more than spend our days singing the ugly song and spreading its bad influence. Let us reason with our Parrot!
