Bent but not broken Ann O. Nymous

A night of lust in romantic Italy turns into forbidden love. Desire, passion, lies; this erotic fueled love story between an international visual artist and an English teacher takes you through an emotional roller coaster that will challenge everything you thought you knew about love. A love so strong that makes you question who you are, what is real and what is not. " I know they say love is like a drug, that the moment you get a taste of it, the more you crave it, and t he longer you can't go without it. She was my drug".
