A stunning collection of aerial images, this bird's eye view captures the very essence of a diverse and beautiful land. The book features over four hundred full-colour photographs of four hundred and twenty different locations from ten English regions. It also includes historical information on each site and ten ordinance survey maps. Centring exclusively on England's countryside and city landscapes, the book offers a breathtaking time slice from Stonehenge to Spaghetti Junction., mixing the old with the new, and the natural with the manmade.
