Women are the greatest natural resource and gift that God has ever given to humankind. She is far more valuable than rubies and diamonds, more precious than gold or platinum. However, although her worth is unmatched, throughout the ages women have been regarded as property, treated as slaves, and even physically abused all because of the ignorance of her worth and God's original intent for creating her. Join Rohan Diedrick in And Then... God Created Woman as he shares insights that will bring new reality to the power and influence of a woman. You will discover why God created this mysterious and valuable being, and your life and your appreciation for her will be forever changed.
