Nurses' Guide to Clinical Procedures (Lippincott's Clinical Skills Series) Jean Smith-Temple, Joyce Young, Ph.D., Rn, Ccrn Johnson

This pocket-sized reference features a nursing process format with step-by-step guidelines. It presents more than 200 common nursing skills in a practical style. Chapter overviews of principles and concepts provide a solid understanding and a knowledge base for procedures that follow. Illustrations and charts accompany the text and are designed to clarify and reinforce information. A glove icon indicates when gloves should be worn. Features new to this edition include: cost-cutting tips for each skill; new skill instruction for bladder scanning; skills which conform to clinical guidelines from the AHCPR, and to the "standard precautions" from the CDC; new information on epidural analgesia; appendices for pain management, medication interactions and drug and nutrient interactions; and increased emphasis on transcultural considerations.
