God Truly works in mysterious ways. This all began as a class project in seventh grade and look at where it has brought me. Everyone has their release from the pangs of everyday life and poetry happens to be mine. God has carried me to this point and has allowed me to share this with you. I was talking with my pastor a while ago and he said “Life is like a walking path; there will be people in front of you, beside you, and behind you so you have to know when to follow, accompany, and lead. But this difference is asking God when to do which.” I thank you all for accompanying me on this journey. If my soul could speak this is what it would say. These are the Words from the Soul: Degrees of Ink. Enjoy, J.A. Marshall
