Going Fast in Loose Directions Ben Kline

The poems of Ben Kline's Going Fast in Loose Directions tell lovers tales that travel the divides between the intimate and the profane, the explicit and the emotional. Using a variety of poetic forms, Kline exposes the details of sexual trysts and thwarted love affairs while, in the process, revealing something about our very human desire to feel something more.

Beacon Broadside said the collection represents the 2014 gay Grindr-using, brunch-planning, H&M-wearing, white suburban hipster gay man. The poems are refreshingly raw with clever titles like, "The Getting Laid Strut," "Jacob Makes a World with Psychic Urges, Gay Weddings, and Crossfit Dreams," and "If the Moneyed White Gays Under the Velvet Ceiling Wrote Dating App Haiku." An interesting collection for the millennial generation--but maybe don't let your mother read it.
