One Wacky Wasp: The Perfect Children's Book for Kids Ages 3-6 Who Are Learning to Read Brent Sampson

An Awesome Adventure in Alliteration

What do two testy turtles, four feeble fish, and eight angry apes have in common? They all share in the joyous journey of one wacky wasp as she flies from her hive to the park and onward to the zoo before returning safely home. Along the way she meets an ever increasing number of funky frogs and trendy teenagers (among others!)

One Wacky Wasp is the ideal family-friendly reading aid for children aged 3-6 who are learning to count and read. Sequential pages encourage children to match numerals with matching quantities of brightly illustrated animals.

This fully illustrated children's book features a very specific rhyming and alliteration method to help beginning readers sound out new words with success while introducing them to "puzzle" and "sight" words like "one" and "eight" in an engaging and productive way. The cute story, funny characters, and bright original artwork will keep young readers coming back again and again.
