Tensions are high. While King Ashmur lies on his deathbed, the evil Lord Cadman coerces Mirstone into declaring war on Grasmere and they're not alone in their malevolent intentions. An evil lurks in the land that threatens to destroy everything in its wake. While Baylin readies the Kingdom, Luana discovers a secret about her past that makes her question everything she thought she knew about herself. All Luana and Baylin wish for is to be safe and happy together. However, constant struggles make it seem as though contentment is impossible. Trials and tribulations strain the delicate core of their relationship. Will war finally succeed in tearing the lovers apart? Will Luana and Baylin's bond be able to withstand the hidden secrets, betrayal and warfare?
