His first book, "Apsara In The Bahamas," followed David and Mary as they sailed their Island Packet 38, Apsara, five thousand nautical miles from their homeport of Pensacola along the Gulf Coast of Florida, across the Gulf Stream and south to the pristine emerald waters of the Exumas. This collection of poems were inspired by this adventure of a lifetime and enkindled by their wanderings in the primeval forest of the southern mountains of North Carolina. and the good people they chanced upon..
