The Testament of Solomon is an important text in exposing the existence of Demons and how they operate in this world from a biblical perspective. The Testament of Solomon is a first hand account by King Solomon in his dealing with demons, along with their names, spells in which to remove or control these demons. He enlisted their help in the building of the First Temple of Jerusalem and he paid the price for it. This text is an in-depth look into the world of Demonology and the caution required in dealing with these entities. With similarities to Greek Mythology, and Asian Mythology, this text shows a universal connection to the Underworld and those who inhabited that evil place. Those known as Evil
