Brave New Family: G.K. Chesterton on Men and Women, Children, Sex, Divorce, Marriage and the Family Gilbert Keith Chesterton

A collection of G. K. Chesterton's provocative writings on a subject close to his heart--the family, and the corresponding themes of men and women, children, sex, marriage and divorce. The family was a central element in Chesterton's vision, a unifying theme of his literary work. His eloquent defense of the sacredness of the home is even more applicable in our times because of the tremendous moral problems in our society that threaten the modern family. Chesterton's insights will be a deep inspiration to married couples, those preparing for marriage, priests, teachers, and anyone else interested in marriage and the family. An ideal gift book. Author: G.K. Chesterton Format: Paperback, 279 pages Publisher: Ignatius Press ISBN: 9780898703146
