Finite S D Hatfield

What if you discovered you had superpowers but they could only be used a set number of times before killing you? Would you use them to be a hero? Maybe use them to be a villain? Or would you avoid using them and just try and live your life? Those are just some of the questions that Colin has to face as he works to save his friends, unlock the mystery of his powers and put an end to a secret government project and the monsters it has created.
