Love Letters to Sophie's Mom Rob Bignell

Passionate and evocative, "Love Letters to Sophie's Mom" traces a relationship from the first dance of love at a coffee shop to its tragic demise as mental illness overtakes the narrator's beloved. Inspired by a diverse array of writings, including the verse of Pablo Neruda, Dylan Thomas, and Bob Dylan, the collection's 34 poems touch upon an array of themes including nature, and Southern California and Northwoods motifs.
