New Age Tantra Yoga: The Cybernetics of Sex and Love Howard John Zitko

Here is a unique presentation of a philosophy of marriage for the Twenty-Second Century with techniques for developing rapport between a man and a woman on all levels of consciousness, from the physical and emotional through the mental to the soul, leading to telepathy, intuition, clairvoyance, and the whole range of the ESP. The traditional elements of Tantra yoga, as they have been perpetuated from a very remote past in Tibet, India, and China, have been given a New Age interpretation and adapted to the needs of an advanced humanity on the Earth today. Tantra is a philosophy of sex lifted from its biological function to a sacramental ritual, one purpose of which is to forge an indestructible union between consenting partners, thus resolving the problems of marital incompatibility, divorce, juvenile delinquency, and the broken home. The divine intent behind sexual union is traced from the Lemurian period, when the Sons of God intermarried with the daughters of men, into the next millennium when the pairing of souls will become an exact science and a spiritual initiation. --- from book's back cover
