Terminal Neglect Michael Rushnak

Within minutes of leaving the White House, State Commissioner of Health, Dr. Jonathan Rogers is gunned down on Pennsylvania Avenue after interviewing for the position of Surgeon General. Rogers awakens from surgery with a life threatening medical finding and soon discovers he's been targeted by a sinister organization known as The Health Club. Weeks later, the FBI informs Rogers that the attack on him has become a matter of national security ever since his Oval House meeting with President Will Jordan. The doctor is warned not to question that he was a victim of a random drive by shooting. But was it?
