Loving Johnny: A Novel Erik M. Walter

Marcus is a gay, forty-three year old Midwestern farmer who lives alone. Although he is surrounded by friends and family who love him, he always assumed that true love would always remain outside his grasp. So no one was more surprised when a handsome and much younger man showed a romantic interest in him. But can two men from different backgrounds and generations make a relationship work? Or will society's disapproval keep them apart? Can they survive the harsh judgment of family and friends? Will their love for each other be enough? This is a heartwarming and romantic story of two very special men who are deeply in love, but who must contend with a world that wants to keep them apart.
