To Robert Carr, Anna is a mystery and that's the way he'd like her to stay. Over the past thirteen years his last, parting image of Anna, kissing her goodbye before she turned to leave, has been the inspiration for a number of his paintings. Through his work, Anna's face has become famous, whilst the woman herself disappeared long ago. Now a TV documentary has launched a nationwide search for the elusive muse. When she is found, her discovery results in a creative block for Robert - but has far more deadly consequences for Anna herself.
